Stomp is explosive, provocative, sophisticated, sexy, utterly unique and appeals to audiences of all ages. The international percussion sensation has garnered an armful of awards and rave reviews, and has appeared on numerous national television shows. The eight-member troupe uses everything but conventional percussion instruments—matchboxes, wooden poles, brooms, garbage cans, Zippo lighters, hubcaps—to fill the stage with magnificent rhythms. As USA Today says, “Stomp finds beautiful noises in the strangest places.” STOMP. See what all the noise is about.

The Mayhem Poets

Capitol Theater Tickets: $12-$20

SAT, APR 18, 8 PM

With words, humor and extreme hip-hop energy, The Mayhem Poets take poetry to playful and compelling new heights. Infectious, charged with adrenaline, and utterly entertaining, their riffs are as much Mad Magazine and “The Simpsons” as Langston Hughes and Maya Angelou. Taking on everything from Dr. Seuss to school to fast food, these beat-boxing bards keep the rapid-fire rhythms flying in this clever concert of words. Both witty and wise, they’re not afraid to engage the issues that rock our world.
